WE are informed by Mr. Fred. T. Beeler, that he has completed the survey of Districts No. 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8 and 9. We were politely shown an outline of No.'s 4 and 9, it marks distinctly all roads, streams, and the farm house thereupon in these two districts. This actual survey, no heresay, is to be forwarded to Philadelphia, where the impression will be taken and colored in the highest style of art. We bespeak for Mr. Beeler a most cordial greeting upon the part of all farmers in his laudable undertaking. He is now working up No.'s 1 and 5.
